

Joint Warfare Centre hosts salute to Norwegian veterans - Joint Warfare Centre

Written by Inci Kucukaksoy, JAC PAO
Friday, 09 March 2012 11:08

NATO's Joint Warfare Centre (JWC) conducted a special ceremony today at the JWC parade ground in Jatta to pay tribute to Norwegian veterans in appreciation of their service and devotion to their country as well as to remember fallen heroes.

69 Norwegian veterans attended the parade ceremony, which started at 10:45 hrs in front of the flag poles of the 20 Nations represented at the JWC. French Army Major General Jean Fred Berger, Commander JWC, performed the ceremonial inspection of the veterans.

Joint Warfare Centre hosts salute to Norwegian veterans - Joint Warfare Centre

Written by Inci Kucukaksoy, JAC PAO

Friday, 09 March 2012 11:08

The ceremony is part of the official visiting programme for the Norwegian Veterans Association for International Operations (NVIO), based in Oslo, who paid a visit to the JWC today to meet with the JWC leadership. NVIO is Norway's largest non-partisan, non-profit organization representing the Norwegian veterans who have bravely served the country during its international operations, with close to 7,700 members and 53 local clubs across Norway.