The Joint Warfare Centre (JWC) will celebrate its 10th anniversary with a logo-design competition!

The JWC will be celebrating its 10th anniversary on 23 October 2013. In honour of this event, a unique anniversary logo competition will be held by the Public Affairs Office (PAO), which is open to all JWC staff and their families.

The aim is to commence the year-long celebration with a unique logo-design competition and to engage all creative members of the Jatta community in the process. We invite you all to participate in the competition and share our great pride and excitement in celebrating JWC's 10th anniversary, its unique achievements and growth as NATO's premier training establishment.

The winning 10th anniversary logo will be used as the official logo during all anniversary events, activities and exhibits throughout the year. It will also be published in all JWC's print and online media, including the official website and Facebook page, as well as in the JWC command magazine. The winner will be announced at the first event or ceremony, marking the opening of the Centre's 10th anniversary celebrations.

The competition officially begins today and ends on 26 November 2012. In order to formally enter the competition, please submit your entries on a CD/DVD or by e-mail at the addresses
